

Valdesil 2010, selected by Jancis Robinson as her favourite “Great White” of Spain

Jancis Robinson has selected Valdesil amongst her 25 favourite Great whites of 2011 and makes it the only Spanish white wine to appear in this extraordinary list published in the Financial Times.

“From a producer who has been shaking up one of the most exciting white wine regions in Spain, in the cool, green, far northwest. Godello is the revitalised local grape variety; 30-year-old vines grown on high, ... slate slopes. Lovely freshness, smokiness and sheer confidence—racy but not feeble. Creamy.”
